How Do You Go to School?

Do you take a bus to school? Do you ride in a car? Kids around the world go to school in many ways. Let's see how they get there!

bus

These children go to school in the United States.

On Tracks and Wheels

Some children in big cities may take a subway to school. A subway is a train that runs underground.

subway

These children take the subway to school in Japan.

A bicycle can be a fast and fun way to get to school. Children in many places ride their bikes.

This girl lives in a big city. She rides by tall buildings on her way to school. She always wears a helmet!

This girl rides her bicycle to school in Australia.

Would you like to ride to school like these children?

They are in a pedicab.

A pedicab has a big seat with wheels. A man pedals to make it go. The pedicab moves like a bicycle.

These children take a pedicab to school in Vietnam.

Over Water and Snow

Some children live near the water. They may take a boat to school.

Kids have to hold up their backpacks when they ride in a boat. They don't want their homework to get wet!

These children take a boat to school in Peru.

These children take a boat to school in Egypt.

Other children live where snow falls all winter. Their mom or dad may drop them off in a snowmobile.

A snowmobile drives on top of deep snow. These children almost never miss school because of snow!

These children ride a snowmobile to school in Canada.

On Animals and On Foot

Would you like to ride a donkey to school? Would you rather ride a horse?

Some children live far from school. Riding animals gets them there in time.

donkey

These children ride donkeys to school in Sudan

These children ride horses to school in Ecuador.

horse

Children who do not live too far from school can walk there. No matter where they live, kids chat and have fun as they walk.

How do you get to school each day?

These children walk to school in England.

These children walk to school in South Africa.
