

Do you know how to be safe in a “Walking School Bus?”

Test what you know about being safe by checking True or False for each question. The right answers are listed below.

1) I should always listen to the Walking School Bus Volunteer. If I don't understand their instructions, I should ask questions.

True False

2) I need to be respectful to everyone, including those I am walking with, neighborhood residents and others sharing the sidewalk.

True False

3) Before crossing streets, driveways, alleyways and parking lot entrances, I need to stop, look and listen.

True False

4) I don't have to obey the traffic signs and signals when walking.

True False

5) When crossing, I should look all four ways: left, right, front and behind.

True False

6) I should always make eye contact with people driving, bicycling and riding scooters before I cross the street.

True False

7) Wearing bright, reflective clothes helps drivers see me when I am crossing the street.

True False

8) It is safe to walk with my shoelaces untied.

True False

9) I have to share the sidewalk with other people who might be walking, riding bikes or riding scooters.

True False

Correct Answers: 1) True; 2) True; 3) True; 4) False; 5) True; 6) True; 7) True; 8) False; 9) True

METROPOLITAN
TRANSPORTATION
COMMISSION

The Alameda County Safe Routes to Schools Program is a program of the Alameda County Transportation Commission (alamedactc.org) and is funded with Alameda County's local sales tax Measure B, regional, state and federal funds.