

GOLDEN SNEAKER CONTEST

Event Overview

During the Golden Sneaker Contest, the Alameda County Safe Routes to Schools (SR2S) team challenges students, classrooms, and schools to compete to see who can walk, roll, carpool, and/or use public transit the most. Contest coordinators will promote the event in advance of the contest by posting fliers, adding to school announcements and newsletters, posting to social media, or creating video advertisements.

Reasons to Participate in the Golden Sneaker Contest:

- Build community
- Encourage students to be physically active
- Enhance student mental wellness
- Encourage teamwork and collaboration
- Reduce pollution around schools
- Reduce greenhouse gas emissions
- Encourage attendance

Materials

Each participating school will be provided with:

- Fliers to promote the event
- Digital and physical mode charts to track participation

The Alameda County Safe Routes to Schools Program is a program of the Alameda County Transportation Commission (alamedactc.org) and is funded with Alameda County's local Measure BB sales tax, and regional, state, and federal funds.
