

Alameda County Safe Routes to Schools (SR2S) Program

School Champion Role

Do you have a passion for physical activity, healthy community, and clean air?

Do you want more students to walk and roll to school?

Our school is looking for a parent or staff volunteer to serve as the connection to the SR2S Program.

What does a Champion do?

- Connect us with the school community
- Support fun and engaging walk and roll activities
- Let us know what you need from our program

How to get involved:

Email info@alamedacountysr2s.org

Visit alamedacountysr2s.org for more information.

The Alameda County Safe Routes to Schools Program is a program of the Alameda County Transportation Commission (alamedactc.org) and is funded with Alameda County's local Measure BB sales tax, and regional, state, and federal funds.