

Join the Fun!

The Alameda County Safe Routes to Schools Program strives for Healthy Kids, Safer Streets, Strong Communities.

The Alameda County Safe Routes to Schools (SR2S) Program works in schools across Alameda County to encourage active transportation opportunities tailored to your community. We do this by:

- Teaching kids the basics of walking and biking safely.
- Making walking and biking to school fun with special events.
- Offering free services and programming tailored to different grade levels.

Ready to get going?

Scan the QR code to read about the Program in other languages

Hey parents!

Did you know that more than 300 schools in Alameda County are enrolled in the Safe Routes to Schools Program?

Learn how we're making our communities healthier and safer for all — and how you can get involved.

Activities All Year Long

Get active with S2RS activities before, during, and after school. The SR2S Program offers the following services and activities:

- Group walks and bike rides
- Free bike repair
- Bike and pedestrian safety classes
- Countywide events and incentives to get families moving
- Leadership opportunities for high school students
- And more!

Get Involved!

To learn about upcoming events at your school or how to bring educational and safety services to your school, email info@alamedacountysr2s.org

Learn more about our work and sign up for our newsletter at alamedacountysr2s.org

Follow us on social media!

[facebook.com/
saferoutestoschool](https://facebook.com/saferoutestoschool)

@AlamedaCoSR2S

The Alameda County Safe Routes to Schools Program is a program of the Alameda County Transportation Commission (alamedactc.org) and is funded with Alameda County's local Measure BB sales tax, and regional, state, and federal funds.

METROPOLITAN
TRANSPORTATION
COMMISSION